

November 26, 2002

Ms. Janice Broome Brooks
Department of Human Services
750 N. State Street
Jackson, MS 39202

Dear Ms. Broome Brooks:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Linda Raff
Catholic Charities
P.O. Box 2248
Jackson, MS 39225

Dear Ms. Raff:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Dr. Brenda Scafidi
Department of Mental Health
239 N. Lamar Street, 11th Floor
Jackson, MS 39201

Dear Dr. Scafidi:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Sandra Shelson
Office of the Attorney General
P.O. Box 220
Jackson, MS 39205

Dear Ms. Shelson:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Judge Thomas Storey, Jr.
Youth Court Judge
P.O. Box 835
West Point, MS 39773

Dear Judge Storey:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Judge John Hudson
Youth Court Judge
P.O. Box 1371
Natchez, MS 39121

Dear Judge Hudson:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Judge Kent McDaniel
Youth Court Association
P.O. Box 1599
Brandon, MS 39043

Dear Judge McDaniel:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Sue Cherney
Southern Christian Services for Children
1900 North West Street
Jackson, MS 39202

Dear Ms. Cherney:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Dr. Wayne Stonecypher
State Board for Community and Junior Colleges
3825 Ridgewood Road
Jackson, MS 39211

Dear Dr. Stonecypher:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Dr. Hazel Gaines
Department of Health
P.O. Box 1700
Jackson, MS 39215-1200

Dear Dr. Gaines:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Gwen Haynes
Shelter for Battered Families
530 George Street
Jackson, MS 39202

Dear Ms. Haynes:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Lillie Young
Rape Crisis Center
530 George Street
Jackson, MS 39202

Dear Ms. Young:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Mr. Frank Melton
WLBT
P.O. Box 1712
Jackson, MS 39215

Dear Mr. Melton:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Attorney General Mike Moore
Office of the Attorney General
P.O. Box 220
Jackson, MS 39205

Dear General Moore:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Sheriff Malcolm McMillin
Hinds County Sheriff's Department
P.O. Box 1452
Jackson, MS 39215

Dear Sheriff McMillin:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Carolyn Webber
Senior Services
4700 Poplar Avenue
Memphis, TN 38117

Dear Ms. Webber:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Mr. Ed Theiss
Methodist Children's Home
7587 Old Canton Road
Madison, MS 39110

Dear Mr. Theiss:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Paula Jordan
Youth Villages
7410 Memphis-Arlington Road
Memphis, TN 38135

Dear Ms. Jordan:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Mr. Chris Cherney
MS Children's Home Society & Family Services Association
P.O. Box 1078
Jackson, MS 39205

Dear Mr. Cherney:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Reverend Jervis Barnes
St. Francis Academy
P.O. Box 640
Picayune, MS 39466

Dear Reverend Barnes:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Dr. Horace Buckley
Center for Family Life Extension
1160 McLean
Jackson, MS 39209

Dear Dr. Buckley:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Betty Byrd
BellSouth Telephone Pioneers
P.O. Box 811
Jackson, MS 39205

Dear Ms. Byrd:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Mr. Ronnie Agnew
The Clarion-Ledger
P.O. Box 40
Jackson, MS 39205

Dear Mr. Agnew:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Dr. Henry Johnson
Mississippi Department of Education
P.O. Box 771
Jackson, MS 39205-077

Dear Dr. Johnson:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Dr. John Jordan
Mississippi Department of Education
P.O. Box 771
Jackson, MS 39205-077

Dear Dr. Jordan:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Mr. John McCullough
BellSouth
P.O. Box 811
Jackson, MS 39205

Dear Mr. McCullough:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Dr. Juanita Sims Doty
Lextron
251 Mitchell Avenue
Jackson, MS 39213

Dear Dr. Sims Doty:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Beth Fisher
Trustmark
P.O. Box 291
Jackson, MS 39201

Dear Ms. Fisher:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Romaine Suguin
United Parcel Service
151 Brook Hollow Esplanade
Harrahan, MS 70123

Dear Ms. Suguin:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr

November 26, 2002

Ms. Carla Nicks
United Parcel Service
605 East McDowell Road
Jackson, MS 39204

Dear Ms. Nicks:

You should have recently received an invitation from Marsha Meeks Kelly, Executive Director of the Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service, to attend a luncheon meeting on December 4, 2002, at 11:30 a.m. at the Old Capitol Inn. The purpose of this meeting is to assess your interest in a potential initiative between the Casey Foundation and the State of Mississippi designed to benefit young people in foster care in our state.

We must prepare young people in foster care to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities that face them at age 18 when they are no longer under the care of the state. National service programs provide a viable avenue for these young people to enter into the workforce. Dialog at the December 4th luncheon meeting will discuss this and other opportunities for these young people.

I hope you will be able to attend the December 4th luncheon meeting. If you need additional information, please contact Marsha Meeks Kelly at 601-432-6738. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr